GANESH CHATURTHI WAS CELEBRATED ON 16TH SEPTEMBER IN SCHOOL TO SEEK THE BLESSINGS OF LORD GANESHA- THE GOD OF PROSPERITY AND WISDOM.

In order to promote the usage of eco-friendly idols for a safer environment the members of the 'Little Greens Club' prepared clay idols to revive the age-old tradition of using Ganesh idols made of natural clay.

The students of the 'Little Greens Club' also presented an awareness programme on the advantages of organic colour and disadvantages of using artificial colours in the preparation of the Ganesha idols. A live demonstration on immersion of Ganesh idols in an eco-friendly manner was also presented by the students.

Members of Little Green's Club ready to visit Agro forestry department along with eco-friendly Ganesh idols.

The members of the 'Little Green Club' prepared clay idols and presented the idols to the officials of the Agro Forestry Department, RINL.
