The Vatsalya club celebrated “Unity in Charity day” on the 28th April 2025 .As a part of the celebration members of the Vatsalya club collected books, clothes, shoes, jewellery etc from the students and displayed the materials in the library

Children from the “Spoorthi Welfare Association” were invited to the school .Cheerfully , they selected materials that fit both their colour and size choices.

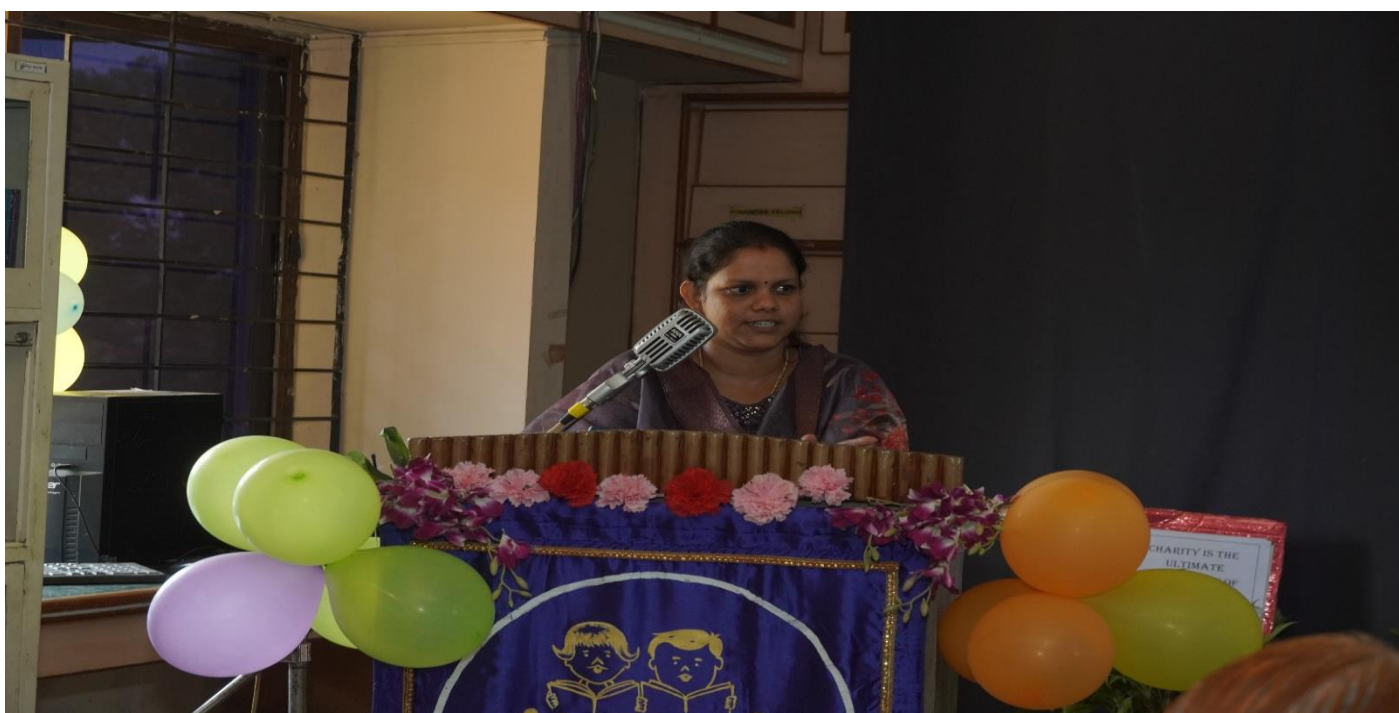

The Children expressed their joy and happiness in getting this opportunity.”

Mrs. Prasanna Jyothi a representative from the “Spoorthi Welfare Association” shared her thoughts on making them a part of the celebration.

Principal Smt. Visalakshi appreciated the members of the “Vatsalya Club” and highlighted the human values of sharing and caring in her speech .

Sharing and caring are the foundations of a kind and compassionate society .When we share what we have be it time knowledge or resources . We make others feel valued and supported. They teach us to look beyond ourselves and build stronger , more connected communities. In a world that often moves too fast taking the time to care and share can make all the difference.
